1873 Plat of the Bland Farm
1882 Plat of the Bland Farm
Excerpts from the 1882 Plat of the Bland Farm

Initial: Blunt Land

State: Georgia

Butler County

Resurveyed May 13th, 1882

The above map is true delineation of four hundred and sixty-seven (567) acres of land in said county.
Dan Bland
1915
Catharine Bland
1910s-20s
Dan and Catharine Bland

1920s
Dan and Catharine Bland

1920s
1928 Article about the Blands and their Statesboro farm

“Better Homes in Georgia”

Solving the Farm Problem
Dan and Catharine Bland
The Bland Cottage, 1928
Catharine Bland
Dan and Catharine Bland
Christmas, 1980
Dan Bland

First District Agricultural School Parade

1954
NATIVE PLANTS

COLLECTED AND DRIED

BY

DAN E. BLAND
Creation of the Botanical Garden
1986

Garden’s Promise
Gleams in future

The drive to the Bland property is lined with interchanged holly trees and magnolias — the tree taken

The Dan Bland house, a pre-World War I cottage, was renovated by the young farmer for his wife before 1920. It will eventually become a visitor’s and meeting center.
Development of the Botanical Garden
1989

How Does Our Garden Grow?

1989 Plan for Development

Plans blossom for GSC's new botanical garden