

Academic Program Review Cycle

Georgia Southern's comprehensive academic program review cycle complies with Board of Regents policy, Section 205.01 (<http://www.usg.edu/regents/policymanual/200.phtml>). Generally, programs are reviewed on a seven-year cycle; however, programs may be asked to submit a review earlier than scheduled if the University System Office identifies the program as not meeting the threshold in either enrollment or graduation.
